

Anne of Green Gables

Lucy Maud Montgomery

06/13/1908

This mundane block of text was typed as a single paragraph to demonstrate single and double newlines. In the midst of this short paragraph is a single newline, and the text after it begins on the next line below without indentation. This paragraph also contains a double newline, which immediately splits what was typed as a single paragraph into visually 2 paragraphs (technically). However, this second “paragraph” is not indented.
